

MUSIC CAMP SUMMER 2009

What is music camp and why should I bring my child?

Have you ever learned a musical and performed it in a week and a half? The Children and Music ministries present the first Music Camp at Central Baptist Church! There will be singing, acting, activities, devotionals, and food! Music camp will be a place where we will challenge the children to use their talents to praise the Lord in a musical.

What is the musical about?

The name of the musical is being kept a mystery, but with every mystery comes a clue. The theme is about being born again. We hope to use this mystery musical to help the children understand the truth behind being born again. To learn more about the musical bring your children to the kickoff enrollment party. There will be clues that will lead you to a secret room where the name of the musical will be revealed!!!!
